DOYLE GETS JOB AS PUBLICITY MAN FOR HAWAII AT EXPOSITION

J. Walter Doyle of the Advertiser has been appointed director of publicity for Hawaii at the Panama-Pacific Exposition by the Hawaii Fair Commission. This action was taken at a special meeting of the commission yesterday, the meeting having been called following the receipt of a cablegram from Resident Commissioner H. P. Wood urging that the position of publicity director be filled and mentioning Doyle and Will Wayne, secretary to the Carnival director, as possibilities.

Mr. Doyle expects to leave for San Francisco within a few days. Desk room has been secured for him in the building maintained by the exposition for the press representatives.

It is understood that Wayne never sought the office and did not even know that he had been recommended as one of the possibilities by Chairman Wood until after yesterday's meeting. He said today that nothing had been mentioned to him on the matter.

New York policemen will now be allowed to leave their posts for 15 minutes for luncheon.

1,000 COUPLES IN FANTASTIC GARB AT MARDI GRAS

Yama Yamas, Monkeys, Bears, Mandarins and French Noblemen in Merry Frolic

Glittering masques flashed a brilliant variety of colors as more than a thousand couples glided over the floor of the armory last night at the ball given by the Carnival and the spirit of merriment reigned as never before.

Berger's band was seated in an alcove at the mauka end of the big building and the musical organization of the 25th Infantry on a platform at the same end. Both bands supplied dancing tunes that heretofore have not been equaled. There was almost a continuous strain of music and few of the dancers "sat out" and decorated the wall.

Society forgot its dignity for the time being and danced with those not included on its roll. The army and navy was well represented, although the service uniform could not be entirely covered with masques and masque costumes.

The dancers began to arrive early and the ball continued from 8 o'clock until after midnight. High officers of the army and navy and Governor Pinkham sat with the Carnival officers on the mezzanine floor and watched the merriment below.

The costumes were varied. One couple dressed as a hand-organ grinder and monkey. Another dressed as a horse, and all manner of animals were represented in costume. The majority, however, appeared in dominoes and yama yamas. At 10:30 the dancers removed their face masques and joy reigned more than ever.

The prize awards, announced on the floor, went to the following:

Most attractive costume—"Chinese Mandarin," H. Winkley.

Best comedy couple—"Org'n Grinder and Bear" (names unknown).

Most original male costume—"Flags of All Nations," Sgt. W. S. King, 10th Company, C. A. C.

Most original female costume—"Pineapple Girl," Miss A. G. Horne.

Best sustained character—"Mephistopheles," Dr. G. Herbert.

Most elegantly costumed couple—Misses Katherine Johnson and Miss Hilda Peck.

Judges—Mrs. William H. Carter, Mrs. C. B. T. Moore, Mrs. C. R. Forbes, Mrs. W. R. Riley and Mrs. E. A. Berndt.

GIRLS! DRAW A MOIST CLOTH THROUGH HAIR

Try this! Hair gets thick, glossy wavy and beautiful at once—Stops falling out

Immediate?—Yes! Certain?—That's the joy of it. Your hair becomes light, wavy, fluffy, abundant and appears as soft, lustrous and beautiful as a young girl's after a Danderine hair cleanse. Just try this—moisten a cloth with a little Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. This will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt or excessive oil and in just a few moments you have doubled the beauty of your hair.

A delightful surprise awaits those whose hair has been neglected or is scraggy, faded, dry, brittle or thin. Danderine beautifies the hair, Danderine dissolves every particle of dandruff, cleanses, purifies and invigorates the scalp, forever stopping itching and falling hair, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use when you will actually see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair growing all over the scalp. If you care for pretty, soft hair, and lots of it, surely get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter and just try it.—advertisement.

URGES "WOMAN'S PARTY" TO END WARS

Miss SUSANNA COCROFT

More than a thousand leading women of the United States, assembled at the Nation's capital, have united in an effort to end war among civilized nations forever. The organization, known as the "Woman's Peace Party," is based on the idea that man's efforts for peace have been a failure for over five hundred years.

The message flashed across the country from the meeting is that "the greatest price Europe is going to have to pay is not even in the lives of men she is now giving, but the blasted lives of generations yet unborn."

These were the words of Miss Susanna Cocroft, the well-known health advocate of Chicago who participated in the big peace meeting. Miss Cocroft has a following of more than seventy thousand women throughout the world.

"No nation is greater than the strength of its mothers," says Miss Cocroft. "In her idea of American womanhood. During the past fifteen years, I have been devoting my time to building up the mental and physical strength of womanhood all over the world and the point which most strongly interests me is the effect of this war upon the health of this and of the next generation. No nation is greater than the strength of its individual members.

"Worry, hatred, anxiety and fear must be the consuming thought of the mothers and sisters of Europe today. These are eating at the very heart of national strength. Our mothers and sisters across the sea have little heart for food. Their bodies, consumed by worry, anxiety and fear grow weak and inefficient."

"Emperor William himself is demonstrating the effect of worry on his own health. He is a keen student and he knows well that he should avoid worry, fear, jealousy and hatred as he would avoid contagious diseases."

"While jealousy, fear, anger, and hatred affect disastrously the health of a nation, their opposites, sympathy, kindness, love and goodness, build up the nerves and strengthen the health. One great good to American womanhood brought about by this war, is the building of health and life through generous giving. Not the giving of money but of sympathy and love—the giving of self. As we give, so we grow, physically and spiritually."

HONOLULU CROP NETS PROFIT OF $144,000

The 1914 crop yielded a net profit of $144,436.24 to the Honolulu Sugar company, according to the treasurer's report read at the annual meeting of stockholders today. The total net profit for the year was $160,599.62. Stockholders got 10 per cent in dividends, amounting to $75,000.

The 1914 crop amounted to 5867 tons, exceeding the estimate and amounting to 5.13 tons per acre, the largest yield ever obtained, was the report of William Pullar, manager. A still larger acreage will be harvested in 1915, 1820 acres, as against 1670.

A marked improvement in milling is shown by the increase in extraction from 92.60 in 1913 to 95.60 in 1914.

Officers were re-elected as follows: E. F. Bishop, president; J. A. Kennedy, vice-president; Geo. H. Robertson, treasurer; E. A. R. Ross, secretary; R. A. Cooke, director; W. G. Brash, director; A. Gantley, director; T. R. Robinson, auditor.

SUPERVISORS INSPECT IMPROVEMENT SITE

Mayor Lane and Supervisors Ahia, Horner and Quinn, in company with James Boyd, one of those who protested against the ruling of the board of supervisors ordering the laying of four-foot sidewalks on Kalakaua avenue from King street to John Ena lane, visited the site yesterday and after an inspection declared that the original order will stand.

Boyd complained that part of the

MUSIC PROGRAM FOR ANTI-SALOON MASSMEETING

A fine musical program is being prepared for the union mass service to be held at the opera house Sunday evening next, under the auspices of the Anti-Saloon league. The Y. M. C. A. orchestra has been engaged to play several selections and the Kamehameha Glee club will sing at least three numbers. In addition, a vocal trio will be rendered by Mrs. Charles L. Hall, Mrs. Weight and Miss Pearson, accompanied by Miss Gantfield on the piano. The piece chosen is "I Waited for the Lord," from Mendelssohn's Hymn of Praise.

The address of the evening will be given by Dr. Purley A. Baker, general superintendent of the Anti-Saloon league of America, and his subject will be what he saw and heard as an eye-witness at Washington, D. C., last December when the question of national prohibition was discussed and con by the House of Representatives.

The officials then visited and gave approval to the repair work being done on Kalakaua avenue and also on the Pali road. Arrangements will be made so that mowing of grass at Kapiolani park will be done by horse-drawn cutters.
